Adobe

Exam 9A0-146

Adobe® Dreamweaver CS5 ACE Exam

Version: 7.1

[Total Questions: 87]

Question No : 1

For which server technology is Remote Development Services (RDS) a component?

A. ASP
B. ColdFusion
C. JSP
D. PHP

Answer: B

Question No : 2

Which two technologies does AJAX combine? (Choose two.)

A. ASP
B. Java
C. JavaScript
D. XML
E. XHTML

Answer: C,D

Question No : 3

You have inserted a SWF file by using Dreamweaver and uploaded both the Web page and the SWF file to your server. What must also be uploaded to the server to properly view the SWF file over the Internet?

A. The Scripts folder
B. A Flash skin
C. The Flash player
D. A browser plug-in

Answer: A

Question No : 4

You upload an FLV file you are using on a Web page to your server. The movie does NOT play when the page loads in the browser. What must be on the Web server in addition to the FLV file in order for the movie to play?

A. The Flash player
B. A skin
C. A security certificate
D. A browser plug-in

Answer: B

Question No : 5

Which action does NOT mitigate page weight?

A. Consolidating multiple CSS stylesheets into one.
B. Using nested tables instead of  elements.
C. Avoiding frame-based layouts.
D. Deleting excess whitespace from the code.

Answer: B

Question No : 6

You have a Web page that uses a table-based layout and HTML  tags. The page loads slowly in the browser. What can be done to reduce page load time?

A. Convert HTML formatting to CSS.
B. Convert the page to a .CFM file extension.
C. Remove all <table> tags.
D. Remove unnecessary hyperlinks from the page.

Answer: A

Question No : 7

You want to build a Website that follows the Web Accessibility Standards. What are three things you can do to improve accessibility on your Web pages? (Choose three.)

A. Add Alt Text to images.
B. Add title information to SWF files.
C. Add labels for form tags.
D. Position content using tables.
E. Remove page titles.
F. Use CSS inline styles.

Answer: A,B,C

Question No : 8

Which panel or dialog box ensures that you will be prompted to add accessibility information as you build your Web pages within Dreamweaver?

A. Dreamweaver Preferences
B. The Site Reports panel
C. The Tag Inspector panel
D. The Behaviors panel

Answer: A

Question No : 9

All of the files in your Website are in a single folder on your local hard drive. What must you do to see your Website files listed in the Files panel?

A. Define a local site.
B. Create all site files before opening Dreamweaver.
C. Create an images folder.
D. Create a root folder for Dreamweaver.

Answer: A

Question No : 10

You want to create a new site from an STE file. Which command should you choose?

A. Site > Manage Sites and click Import.
B. Site > New Site.
C. File > Import.
D. File > Open.

Answer: A

Question No : 11

You want to specify a local site folder in the Site Setup dialog box. What should you do?

A. Select the Site category and click Browse for Folder.
B. Select the Servers category and click Add New Server.
C. Select the Advanced Settings category and then select Local Info.
D. Select the Site category and type the site name.

Answer: A

Question No : 12

Why should you never rename a file outside of Dreamweaver?

A. Dreamweaver will NOT be able to find the file.
B. The file will get corrupted.
C. Images in the file will disappear.
D. You may create broken links in your site.

Answer: D

Question No : 13

You are using the Files panel. What happens when you drag an HTML file from the site root folder to a subfolder in the same site?

A. The file is copied to the subfolder.

B. The file is moved to the subfolder.

C. The file is deleted from the site.

D. Nothing. You cannot drag files within the Files panel.

Answer: B

Question No : 14

You need to move Web pages into subfolders within your root folder. Where should you go to move these files into subfolders to ensure that all Website links remain intact after this process?

A. The Insert menu within Dreamweaver

B. The Web server

C. The operating system

D. The Files panel within Dreamweaver

Answer: D

Question No : 15

Your company will be hosting your Website on a Web server within your department. You can access the Web server from within your operating system. Which type of connection should you use to upload files to the web server?

A. RDS

B. Local/Network

C. FTP

D. WebDAV

Answer: B

Question No : 16

When should you select Use Passive FTP to connect to a remote server?

A. when you want the remote server to establish the connection