

Migration Engine from Butterfly Software V6.05 Fundamentals

Version: 6.0

[Total Questions: 49]

https://certkill.com

CERTKILL

Question No:1

How does IBM Tivoli Storage Manager retain the automatic client deployment packages?

- A. batch files stored in the database
- B. zip files stored in the server directory
- C. archive objects stored in a storage pool
- D. executable files stored in the Backup-Archive client directory

Answer: C

Question No:2

What does it mean when a node is in pending active state?

- A. The node is ready to be cutover.
- B. Inactive data has already been migrated.
- C. The migration for a node is preparing to run.
- D. The node is ready to be activated on the target.

Answer: D

Question No:3

The migration status page indicates that a batch is complete using which identifier?

A. a green light
B. a checked box
C. a 100% symbol
D. an exclamation point (!)

Answer: C

Reference:ftp://ftp.software.ibm.com/software/au/downloads/Storage/Session_5_Migrating _to_TSM.pdf(page 48)

Question No:4

The Migration Planning Workshop Template Kit is used for what purpose?

- A. To maintain a daily log of events and track software/hardware outages.
- B. To maintain a chronological order of all actions taken during the migration.

C. To produce roles and responsibilities, contacts of vendors, and executive orders.

D. To produce planning workshop findings, migration plans, cutover schedules, and the Statement of Work.

Answer: D

Question No:5

See the Exhibit below.

Add Source Grou	ip Remo	Remove Source Group
Target Group:	Standard	Deman	Stantard
Expert From Source:		Sterage Post	FFOOL
Node Suffic	NETBACK	Propagale Referition:	2

What is the purpose of the node suffix shown in the exhibit?

A. It acts as a filter for nodes in the associated source group.

B. It acts as a filter for filespaces in the associated source group.

C. It ensures node data format will be changed from the source type of NETBACKUP.

D. It is appended to the node name when it is defined in the IBM Tivoli Storage Manager V6 target.

Answer: A