

IBM

Exam P2020-079

IBM Initiate Master Data Service Support Mastery v1

Version: 6.0

[Total Questions: 30]

Question No : 1

You are seeing the following error in your logfile: "Connect: unable to connect to the data source". What has happened and what should you do first?

- A. your application server (e.g. Tomcat) has stopped; restart application server
- B. the database has gone offline; contact your DBA
- C. the Master Data Engine has stopped; check / restart MDE
- D. all systems running but data dictionary is corrupt; redeploy (refresh) engine configuration using Workbench and try again

Answer: C

Question No : 2

What is the correct location for information regarding which versions of databases, operating systems, third party software etc have been verified compatible with any given release of Initiate software?

- A. The Technical Requirement document.
- B. The Knowledge Base on the Customer Service Center website.
- C. Software sales information page, linked from <http://www.initiate.com>.
- D. Leaflet included with the official product software distribution CD or DVD.

Answer: A

Question No : 3

Which of the following statements below is FALSE?

- A. A running Master Data Engine will continue running if your external LDAP server is down.
- B. A running Master Data Engine will continue running if either the Inbound or Outbound applications are terminated.
- C. A running Master Data Engine will stop running if a kill-9 is issued against its pid.
- D. A running Master Data Engine will stop running if its process is terminated via the Initiate Inspector monitoring perspective.

Answer: D